QSRF Annual Report 2010-2011

The 2010-2011 financial year will be best remembered for the inaugural ClearThinking Cube event held in the lead up to World Mental Health Day on 10 October 2010. To draw media attention to the issue of youth mental health, Louise Bellchambers camped out day and night for 100 hours in a clear perspex 3x3 metre 'cube' installed on the Queens Street Mall in central Brisbane.

As a result Louise was able to relay via television and radio the alarming statistics about youth mental health: that 1 in 4 young people experience a mental health problem in any one year; that most young people with a mental disorder do not receive any professional assistance whatsoever; and only about 3% with a mental disorder access specialist community mental health services. As 75% of all adult mental illness starts before the age of 25 years, the opportunity for early intervention is missed for most people.

The ClearThinking Cube awareness campaign resulted in considerable public interest, expanding our support base for the proposal of establishing Queensland's first dedicated Research Centre for Youth Mental Health.

We have progressively strengthened our stakeholder relationships especially with the University of Queensland and the Mental Illness Fellowship of Queensland.

We continue to strongly press our case for State Government funding for the Research Centre and have continually lobbied political parties.

A highlight of the year was the nomination of the ClearThinking Research Centre for Youth Mental Health proposal for the 2010 Helen Row Zonta International Memorial Prize as the best initiative promoting the treatment or prevention of mental health problems in childhood and adolescence.

Of course we continue to fund research, currently focused on the early detection of depressive disorder in young people that is being conducted at the University of Queensland.

None of these achievements could have been possible without our many supporters and sponsors, who we thank sincerely.

We wish to acknowledge the hard work of our QSRF Advisory Committee, presently constituted by:

- ❖ Ms Kaye Adnam
- ❖ Ms Louise Bellchambers
- ❖ Ms Sue Cameron
- ❖ Dr Vibeke Catts
- ❖ Dr Michael Daubney
- ❖ Dr Peter Riddles
- ❖ Ms Margaret (Meg) Scott
- ❖ Ms Susan de Waard

We also thank our Development Officer, Ms Kerri Walters, who organised the ClearThinking Cube event under great time pressure. Finally, we thank Honorary QSRF Treasurer Vibeke Catts, and Mr Vince Knauth and Ms Rachel McBride who keep our financial records in order.

As you are aware, this year was marked by the devastating Queensland cyclones and floods. The Trustees formally express their condolences to all those affected by grief or loss.
